FIVE HURT IN AUTO CRASH ON SALEM HIGHWAY

F. I. Bolles and Louis Sanders Cars Collide at Crossing Near Village With Terrific Impact

MOTHER OF MR. BOLLES SUFFERS FRACTURED SHOULDER IN CRASH

Elmer Waite Escapes With Cuts When Thrown Through the Wind Shield

Five persons were injured and two cars badly damaged in a collision between automobiles on the North Salem road, just west of the village of West Salem, at 6:30 Wednesday night.

The injured are:

Mrs. Richard H. Garland, eight shoulder fractured.

F. I. Bolles, cut and bruised.

Mrs. F. I. Bolles, back wrenched.

Mrs. Margaret Bolles, bruised.

Elmer Waite, cut and bruised.

The collision occurred when an enclosed car driven by Miss Hulda Sanders, daughter of Louis Sanders, traveling south on the Stevenson road, turned onto the main highway toward the village, just west of the cemetery, crashing into the big touring car of F. I. Bolles, containing a party of five enroute to the Bolles summer cottage at Sunset Point, opposite Dressbach.

Meet on Highway

The cars came together just south of the main highway, the appearance of the wrecked machines indicating that Mr. Bolles had veered sharply to the left to avoid the Sanders car as it dashed out of the Stevenson road.

The impact of the two cars was terrific, the crash being heard at nearby farm houses.

Elmer Waite was thrown through the wind shield of the Bolles car, taking a large part of the heavy glass front with him. He miraculously escaped with a few cuts.

Shoulder Broken

Mrs. Garland, mother of Mr. Bolles, sitting on the right side, was knocked so hard against the side of the car that her right shoulder was broken.

Other members of the Bolles family escaped with minor injuries. The wheel probably saved Mr. Bolles from going through the wind shield.

Both front wheels of the Bolles car were smashed into kindling wood, the front running board was bent and the front axle broken.

The car driven by Miss Sanders was not so badly damaged, although the front end was dented in and a fender ruined.

The injured were conveyed to the offices of Dr. Wakefield in the village and later to their homes after first aid had been given. Mrs. Garland, who suffered the worst injury, is expected to recover.

ORION AND STUPKA COME TO BLOWS AT BALL GAME THURSDAY

It all came out of the excitement of the ball game between the La Crosse and Cashon clubs at Copeland park Wednesday evening.

Edgar Orion and Joseph Stupka were seated by each other in the field watching the game, when Orion was alleged to have remarked that he would not give the south side team a nickel and at the same time lightly patting a full wallet in his rear pocket.

"I'd be in the grand stand, but I'm broke," was the alleged reply of Stupka. One thing led to another until the men came to blows with the result that a "pepper" took them in.

Stupka was alleged to have connected for several "safeties" before the pepper called a ball.

NEW U. S. Economy Needed—Mellon

WASHINGTON, D. C.—A cut of more than $250,000,000 in the ordinary expenditures of the government this fiscal year, is necessary, if additional taxes are to be avoided, the house ways and means committee was informed Thursday by Secretary Mellon.

On present estimates he said the total government cost this year will be $4,550,000,000, of which $3,850,000,000 must come from taxation.

Even with the suggested reductions, Mr. Mellon said, the internal revenue yield for the year "could not safely be permitted to fall below $3,570,000,000, the estimated yield under existing law."

The treasury secretary told the committee that actual expenditures for the first full month of this fiscal year indicated that unless there was "an extraordinary new effort to reduce expenditures" the estimate which the treasury had presented might be regarded as conservative. Ordinary expenditures for July, he said, amounted to about $322,000,000 as against $307,000,000 for July, 1920, while the current deficit last month was $113,000,000 as against $76,000,000 in the same month a year ago.

"An analysis of the principal items of expenditure for July, 1921," the secretary continued, "shows that $59,000,000 was on account of the war department, $56,000,000 on account of the navy and $32,000,000 on account of the shipping board. If expenditures are to continue at anything like these rates the estimates will be greatly exceeded."

Excluding the suggested increase of one cent in first-class mail rates and two-cent tax on bank checks Mr. Mellon estimated that the proposed revision of taxes would bring a total yield this year of $3,620,000,000 and $3,253,000,000 in the fiscal year, 1922. His estimates assumed the following changes:

Increase in the corporation income tax to 15 per cent and the repeal of the $2,000 exemption.

Repeal of the excess profits tax.

Increased collections of back income and profit taxes.

An increase of the tax on cigars and tobacco.

Repeal of the transportation tax.

Doubling the documentary stamp taxes.

The license tax on motor vehicles averaging about $10 each, graded according to power.

Repeal of the tax on ice cream and fountain drinks.

Revision of the income tax rates with a maximum surtax rate reduced to 32 per cent.

Repeal of the so-called luxury taxes.

ACQUAINTANCE TOUR DELIGHTFUL EVENT FOR OVER HUNDRED

Citizens' Band and Autoists Score Hit in Places Where Stops are Made

CITIZENS ENJOY CONCERTS IN FIVE PLACES VISITED

Last Stop at Salem Marked by a Chicken Dinner

The first Acquaintance tour of the Chamber of Commerce for 1921 was a complete success. About six score people made the trip and they were given a most hearty welcome in every community they visited. The statement, frequently made, that a tour of this kind is only half a tour without a hand, was amply proven by the added enjoyment for both towns and tourists provided by having a first class band along.

The Citizens' band wanted to go to it every time the cavalcade stopped. At Cashon, the first stop, it was difficult to pull them away from the concert they gave in the public square. When they reached Sparta, they departed, and marched into town with twenty-two cars behind them. Finding the town closed for Wednesday half holiday, the tourists sent a messenger to the baseball grounds and asked if they could march around the field, and permission being heartily granted, the crowd lined itself down the road and gave the grandstands and bleachers a parade and short concert.

Run on Ice Cream

It was the same all along the line. At Rockland, the entire population turned out and listened to four or five numbers of excellent music. Here also everybody got what is known among tourists as "The Dusty Throat," and Rockland sold more ice cream cones and soft drinks than have been dispensed there in many a day. Danzow was reached just before the close of business and there was a wealth of handshaking there. "Super-visors," "Dicks," Davis and others welcomed the visitors. Here there was a great desire expressed for baths and food. Two of the young ladies in the party couldn't stand it any longer, and when the band played "Ain't We Got Fun," gave a very pretty exhibition of the social dancing of the day.

West Salem was reached within ten minutes of the schedule prepared by the Chamber of Commerce. Owen, Waite and others and the wash-up was universal. Presently well over a hundred people were seated in Host Lester's dining room partaking of chicken, peach pie and many other tasty eatables. Cash was much in evidence as "B. C." with his snail working as usual, gathered in the long shovels from the parkers. Announcement was also made here of the generous offer of the proprietor of the West Salem moving picture house to admit all the visitors who desired free of charge during the evening.

Concert at Salem

After supper the band played several selections using the city band stand and about 8:30 p. m. the crowd started homeward rired but happy and congratulating each other on the best Acquaintance tour La Crosse ever made.

"Nothing to be wished for," somebody said, "except for a few of the tired people in La Crosse to wake up and help put more cars in these camps. If we can't take fifty cars to Trempealeau on the 17th, we ought to be ashamed."

Only one accident marred the perfect record of seventy-five miles of travel. John Mulder's car which carried a full load, including the city treasurer and Miss Schweitzer, had a blowout in front of the restaurant in West Salem. John M. along with Harry Newburg and Claude Johnson led the parade several times during the day and were a committee on fellowship at all times. The free service of both the Lee Tire and George Tire trouble cars was available during the entire trip.

CRAIG REPORTED REFUSING TO MEET THE SOUTHERNERS

Says He Will Meet De Valera Only With Lloyd George

DUBLIN.—By The Associated Press.—The Irish republican parliament has been summoned to meet Tuesday, August 16, the Irish Bulletin, official republican organ, announced Thursday. Notices have been sent to all the members of the parliament.

DUBLIN.—By The Associated Press.—A full meeting of the Irish republican parliament is to be called. The official announcement of the call with the date for the meeting will be published in tonight's issue of the Irish bulletin.

It is reported the reply of Ulster to overtures by the Sinn Fein has been received and is not favorable.

The call for the meeting of the parliament with all members present involves the release from prison of twenty-five members of this body and it has been declared the government is willing to facilitate their attendance.

The belief had been expressed among the Irish leaders that there was no use in summoning the parliament until the attitude of Ulster had been finally defined. The inference in political circles here therefore, is that the answer of Ulster has been received.

This answer is reported to be unfavorable. The Belfast leaders declining the Sinn Fein overtures, although these overtures had the sympathy of the British government, it was said.

Have Ulster Reply?

LONDON.—By The Associated Press.—The Irish situation took a sensational turn Thursday when it was announced in Dublin that Eamonn De Valera and his assistants had decided to summon a full meeting of the Irish republican parliament to consider the British government's Irish peace proposals.

It has been repeatedly stated in Dublin that the Dail Eireann would not be summoned until Ulster's attitude had been learned, but coincident with the calling of a meeting of this body came conflicting reports from Dublin and Belfast concerning Ulster's position.

Claim Unfavorable Reply

In Dublin it is reported that Ulster has been sounded and has returned an answer unfavorable to the Sinn Fein overtures while in Belfast after an important meeting of the cabinet it was authoritatively stated that the Ulster ministry had received no communication from De Valera.

While those reports at first glance seem irreconcilable, it is pointed out that possibly both may be correct. The fact that the Ulster cabinet itself has not received a communication would not, it is noted, preclude the possibility of an informal discussion between the northern and southern leaders.

A dispatch to the Evening News from Belfast asserts that the Ulster cabinet at this morning's meeting discussed an invitation from the Dail Eireann to Sir James Craig, Ulster premier, asking him to attend a conference in Dublin with a view to determining Ulster's attitude. It adds that there is no possibility, however, of another meeting between Sir James and De Valera in Dublin, although the Ulster premier is willing to meet the republican leader with Premier Lloyd George in London.

Out of these conflicting reports however, arises the outstanding fact that the republican parliament is to meet, which is taken to mean that Mr. De Valera will give a reply to Lloyd George in the immediate future.

Official quarters in London know of no communications having been passed between Mr. De Valera and the northern cabinet, but it was understood from another source that Premier Lloyd George, after conferring with Sir James in London this week, sent a message to Mr. De Valera which might account for the calling of Dail Eireann.

The British cabinet already has reached a decision regarding the release of members of the Dail imprisoned or in detention camp and it is understood that Dublin castle is free to release them as it thinks fit. Members who have been on the run are understood to have returned to their

MORGAN IS ASKED IF STATE SCHOOL LAND CAN BE SOLD

Favorable Answer Might Bring 300,000 Acres of Northern
Wisconsin on Market

ACTION SOUGHT BY DISTRICT RESIDENTS

Large Areas of Tax-free State
Land Put Big Burden on them

MADISON, Wis.—The disposition that the state may make of 300,000 acres of land valued at millions of dollars, and held by it in trust for the school fund, will be determined shortly by Attorney General William Morgan. He has been asked by the conservation commission to decide whether or not the lands may be played on the market by the state land commissioners.

Held Lacking Authority
In absence of any specific legislative authority the commissioners, made up of the governor, state treasurer and secretary of state, have held the property off the market since 1912. At that time the supreme court gave its opinion maintaining that the purchase of forest land was interior improvement and that debt incurred in purchase of land could not exceed $100,000 under the constitution.

Should the attorney general rule that legislative action was not needed by the commissioners, it is considered likely that a move will then be made to dispose of a large part of the property fit for agricultural purposes, and that which is not contiguous to the main holding.

Reappraisal of the entire area would be necessary as a preliminary step to sale, according to the land office which says that this work could not be done within the next year.

Most of it Wooded
The state lands are mainly situated in the northern counties of Wisconsin, much of it wooded territory. All is inured to the school fund as a result of previous sale of school lands, the money of which was turned into the general fund.

Attempt was made to transfer a portion of this area to the conservation commission for a state park, forest and game farm, and for the operation of a state forest nursery, but the bill making the transfer was vetoed by Governor Dillingham after it had passed both houses of the legislature.

No steps were taken by the last legislature to give specific authority to the land commissioners for sale of the property, although legislation was asked by some of the villages located in the territory. They claimed that a large part of the property within their limits was owned by the state and exempt from taxation, resulting in a heavy burden on the local tax payers.

The conservation commission has been authorized by the legislature to protect the lands and to do such work as will enhance their value. To carry out this provision the commission has outlined a program which it is attempting to have followed.

To Keep Lake Fronts
"It is the consensus of opinion that the state should hold the lake frontage she now owns," C. L. Harrington, construction commissioner says. "We have occasion to see as the limits of the wild life are gradually restricted, the purchasing and control of some of the most desirable hunting, fishing and camping areas by private parties, and the subsequent refusal on the part of the new owners to allow citizens to cross over their lands to the waters of lakes or streams nearby."

"In view of these circumstances and realizing that they will increase as the years go by, we feel that all lands along rivers or lakes that are now owned by the state should be held, except where the state owns the entire frontage, when a portion of it should be sold to allow for private development."

"The timber areas now owned by the state are comparatively few. Every acre of this land should be held, as it will be worth many times its present value in a comparatively few years."

"All of an area approximately 122,000 acres of which 100,000 acres are owned by the state, should not be retained. In this region are located some of the finest lakes of Northern Wisconsin. This area will serve as the location of a state forest, as an ideal game refuge and as a great recreation area and mecca for thousands of travelers."

"There has been a growing demand for the sale of those lands which are of unquestioned agricultural value. To place such lands in the hands of settlers who will farm them is the logical thing for the state to do and this is the logical destiny of such lands."

Deputies to Get Busy When all Saloon-men Have Been Given Time

MADISON, Wis.—The requirements against maintenance of bars over which non-intoxicating liquor is sold, and which obstruct the view of the interior of saloons, has not yet been enforced by deputies of the prohibition commissioner, announced from that office Thursday.

Local officials for the time being are left to carry out the provision of the new enforcement measure because of their knowledge of conditions. Just as soon as it is certain that all saloon men have thoroughly acquainted themselves with the law, then the state deputies will make reports.

"Many saloon-men have been misled by the talk of certain organizations, which are attempting to obstruct operation of the law," Commissioner Smith said. "For that reason we are asking district attorneys to carry out the provisions of the law regarding bars, until certain that they are generally understood."

"It is noticeable that those who are asking saloon men to organize against compliance with the law, are individuals who will not be affected by its penalties."

WISCONSIN STALLION INDUSTRY BETTER THAN WAS HOPED

MADISON, Wis.—Dr. A. S. Alexander in charge of the division of horse-breeding of the state department of agriculture reports that the close of the fiscal year on June 30, 1921, found the stallion industry in much better condition than had been expected, because of the renewed interest on the part of owners, and the shipment of a number of new pure bred stallions into the state, the reduction compared with last year is small, and is not nearly so great as has occurred in many other horse bred stallions into the state, the reduction compared with last year is small, and is not nearly so great as has occurred in many other horse breeding states. At the present time the total number of licensed stallions in 1921. In 1920 the total number was 1688. The percentage of pure bred to grade and scrub stallions in 1907 was 55, in 1920, 71.7 and in 1921 it is 74.7. Grant county heads the list in ownership of pure bred stallions with 63 head. The Winning Hand ENGLAND wants to hold onto its Japanese alliance. It might stand Great Britain in hand in its India problems. Japan wants no peace conference at all, because this means a formidable combination of white races which Japan had hoped had so weakened themselves in the late attempt to destroy each other as to bring the domination of far eastern races appreciably nearer. The white dominions of Great Britain stand with Uncle Sam as to the main principle. The United States will win the substance of its demands. England can not afford to insist upon relations with Japan in opposition to the United States, Canada, Australia and New Zealand. Japan can not afford to stay out of the conference and permit white races to set up far eastern policies in which she thus would have had no voice. Neither can England afford to break up the conference by staying out, for she must have the co-operation of the United States, lost to the League of Nations, through some other agency such as the disarmament conference. For one must see that the immediate emergency of the nations involved is concerned with something more than to get rid of the costs of wars and the war status. The underlying motive is the protection that comes with the making of specific common causes upon which international relations shall turn. The covenant of the League of Nations put the meat of protection in the much defamed Article 10. Sugar-coat it as we will it has got to be kept alive in some form. Disarm rioters and they will fight with their fists. Nations are like that. When we have disarmed potential friends and foes alike, including ourselves, we're going to make sure we have the most fists on our side, and have some sort of defensive understanding. With recent history in view Harding could not consistently call a peace league meeting, so he called an anti-war league meeting, which broadly amounts to the same thing. Perhaps in one way his is the better plan. Wilson proposed to grab the bar by the tail to pull its teeth. Harding is trying to pull the bar's teeth before he grabs it by the tail. One hopes he will not come out like the mouse which proposed to tie a bell on the cat so all mice would know when puss was on the hunt. Probably not, for the world does not hanker for war. For years "Germany Uber Alles" was the banner at every German festivity. At the seventh anniversary of the outbreak of the world war, last week, 30,000 German citizens in a single city paraded with streaming banners bearing the challenge. "No More Wars." The march of the iron heel is great sport, but one does get awfully tired of paper shoes.

Politics

THE political bubble which exploded when the interview in which Lord Northcliffe was represented as having quoted King George on the Irish question amounted to little in itself. British papers carried the interview. The king passed the lie in diplomatic language. Northcliffe denied the interview. It was proven to be a fake as far as he was concerned. Corrections were made and amenities exchanged. Nevertheless, had the king and Lord Northcliffe come close enough together to "kiss and make up," chances are they would have bitten instead of kissed.
For back of this incident looms a big fight. Northcliffe, a strong war supporter of Lloyd George, has turned against him. As the most powerful British publisher, he has become a thorn in the side of the premier, whom he has characterized as an idol with clay feet. He also attacks Lord Curzon, foreign minister. He objects to Lloyd George coming to America to the disarmament meeting. Those who seek for the reason can find little to which to trace it but the disappointment of Lord Northcliffe at not having been taken into the peace conference and otherwise recognized for his unquestionably great war service and his support of the selection of Lloyd George as premier and of the latter's war policies.

We had something of the sort in America. There was Colonel Harvey, editor of The North American and of Harvey's Weekly. He wanted to be recognized in high places, and especially to become American ambassador to England. Wilson ignored him. He attacked Wilson in every issue of his papers. He raised hob about Wilson going to the peace conference, as Northcliffe now raises Cain about Lloyd George going to the disarmament conference.

Finally there was an election in America. Harvey fought Wilson's choice for the presidency, and Wilson's candidate lost. Now Colonel Harvey is American ambassador at the court of St. James.

Sooner or later an election will be forced on Premier Lloyd George. What will come of it? Will some historian inform us that "Wilson had his Harvey. Lloyd George had his Northcliffe?" Great political events sometimes hang on political ambitions. Note, for instance, the efforts of those in the United States who defeated the League of Nations to create in its place a league of nations so disguised that it will not appear to be a league of nations. It all came about because Wilson had not the political breadth and wisdom to placate Colonel Harvey and send Lodge to the peace conference. Perhaps the British premier now hears an echo from the past:

"And Lloyd George may profit by their example."

"Boring From Within"

FAMINE in Russia has presented to the opponents of soviet rule their greatest opportunity, but the chance to overturn the bolshevik government has not been seized. Instead, the strong men of all classes and political groups are centering upon relief problems. Great crises work this way. Even bitter differences are laid aside in national emergencies and the brains and patriotism of the country make common cause.

Perhaps it is doubly fortunate that this is true in Russia today. A government that could not be destroyed by its political enemies may fall because of its own inherent weaknesses. Russia starves because individual initiative was destroyed and production failed so that famine resulted from a single partial crop failure. People flee in hordes from famine, only to encounter famine. There is no asylum, because there is no food. Soldiers mutiny and run riot. Death stalks everywhere. England and America, lands of despised "Capitalism," are appealed to for relief. It would seem that even illiterate Russia must learn the lesson. Individual industry and provident ownership make national security. Peoples whose civil lives become a military drill perish sooner or later for lack of individual self-sufficiency.

In Ye Olden Times

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Van Auker, George and Carl Van Auker, and Professor and Mrs. F. A. Cotton left today for Star Lake, Wis., for a three weeks' vacation. According to Superintendent Kleiber of the free employment bureau there is little demand for laborers at the present time. During the past week the call for farm hands has ceased and nearly all the factories are running with as few men as possible.

Claude Pettigill, son of J. L. Pettigill, and a former resident of La Crosse, has returned from Seattle, Wash., where he has spent the last nine years, to spend a few weeks. Mr. Pettigill is in the real estate business in Seattle.

La Crosse business men at this time are greatly interested in the Palmer School of Chiropractic at Davenport as the prospect of the big institution being moved here are bright. The law firm of Morris and Hartwell are attorneys for Dr. Palmer and his school. They are now incorporating the institution for $100,000 and as soon as that is completed action will be taken to decide whether the school will be removed to La Crosse or some other city.

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Captain Joseph Duission of the La Crosse-Dubuque packet line announces that he is thinking seriously of starting a packet line between La Crosse and St. Paul. He says there is a promising future in store for the Mississippi river if short packet lines between river towns can be established.

Three new rural mail delivery routes are to be recommended for this district by Congressman Esch. One will be from Midway along the river to Council Bay to Mosher's school house and back to Midway. The second route will be from Holmen to Long Coulee, from Sacia's place to Stevenson, west to Spring Coulee and back to Holmen. The third route will be from Holmen to Louis Valley, thence to the ridge and back to Holmen.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hart have moved to Denver, Colo., to make their home.

Work on the super-structure of the new Catholic church at St. Joseph's ridge is completed. The church will likely be ready for use by the first of October.

THIRTY YEARS AGO TODAY

The casket for Bishop Flisch has arrived in the city. It is a handsome metallic case weighing 375 pounds. It is covered with purple broadcloth and ornamented with gold trimmings. It is said to have cost $300.

The first park concert of the season will be given in the Main street park tonight by Professor Tippman's Military band.

The new vault for the Register of Deeds' office has been completed. It cost $1,000 and the fixtures $500.

The county board committee met yesterday and decided to build an asphalt roadway in the court yard. It will describe a circle where the old jail stood, and will have an entrance and egress there. Such a road will keep drays and road wagons out of the park.

A prairie schooner passed through La Crosse this morning. It was on the return trip from the prairie country.

Boots

BY DR. WILLIAM E. BARTON

It is an old story, but I want to add a new lesson. A man visited Chicago after it had become a town of several thousand inhabitants, and he marveled at its growth.

"I remember the time," he said, "when I could have bought the hull swamp for a pair of old boots."

"Why didn't you buy it?" he was asked.

His reply was, "Stranger, I hadn't the boots."

That answer has been judged satisfactory and final. I do not so regard it.

It was not a sufficient reason why that man did not buy Chicago.

The man who was offered Chicago for a pair of old boots, and failed to buy it because he did not have the boots, was a dupe.

He lacked not boots alone but brains.

Some men would have gotten the boots.

They would have pulled off the boots they had on, and set traps for muskrats along Chicago river till they got a pair of muskrats or have gone barefoot till they earned enough to make good the lack of boots. They would have begged or borrowed or stolen the boots.

A man who in that early day could not see that a great city was certain to grow up at the end of Lake Michigan, carried his brains in his boots.

The man who has opportunity within his grasp and lets it escape is usually fertile in excuses. He can tell exactly why it was impossible for him to succeed.

But the men who achieve success in life are those who, in spite of all the conditions that would make success impossible, get the boots.

Finley Meadows opened a No. 2 ice cream parlor today, as so many people still have money. "I'd almost rather try to do without liquor than be arrested," some friend all the time," said Constable Newt Plum, today.

battered you—and you may have been getting some and headchiefs. I do hope I haven't been a frightful nuisance."

"I should say not," exclaimed Henry, "I've always considered it a pleasure to forward to you anything that came my way. I hope the hairpins were not out of order by the time they reached you."

"Quite the contrary," Henrietta returned, "they were in perfect condition."

The clock on the mantelpiece struck nine o'clock dimly—and reminded Henry that the day was Monday and the office some two miles downtown.

He rose with a sigh and held out a big hand to Henrietta.

"Thank you for the coffee; it was a thousand times better than the one I almost had downstairs. And please let Henry that the day was Monday and the office some two miles downtown."

Talks by La Crosse Shriners

No. 11

C. W. NOBLE,

Chairman Grounds and Buildings Committee.

GENERAL CHAIRMAN Sisson will be a memorable day in La Crosse for both Shriners and the public.

The world renowned Barnum and Bailey circus aggregation will appear like a side show.

The first car of tenting has arrived, others are on the way and soon the side tracks will be blocked with paraphernalia and the show grounds crowded with a force of men erecting structures and installing lights for the great caravan when the novice crosses the hot sands of the desert under the guidance of the far famed Tripoli Temple of the Ancient Arabic Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine.

The tent is for part of the show only, the La Crosse theater has been engaged for the evening of August 12, and the general public will be welcome to the performance there.

The Normal school gymnasium and Pioneer hall have been reserved for special ceremonies but to these latter only those who know how to hold onto the rope and the candidates will be admitted as at the big tent on August 12.

La Crosse has many halls and theaters, but all of these if stacked together would not be large enough to accommodate the multitude of Shriners for this ceremonial. It was therefore necessary to search the country about for materials and the committee has secured the largest tent, stage and grand stand that can be secured to accommodate the Shriners on August 12.

La Crosse Educators and Conservationists to Attend
Vacation Session

Several La Crosse teachers and lovers of the outdoors are planning to attend the American school of wild life protection and propagation at McGregor, Ia., August 7 to 19. One of the instructors at this school is Dr. L. H. Pammel, Iowa State College, a native of La Crosse.

A year ago was tried out the experiment of a week devoted to the holding of a Summer School, in the interest of Wild Life Conservation, at McGregor, that wonderfully appealing scenic and historic centre by the Mississippi in North-Eastern Iowa.

The experiment was so completely successful, the school will convene in August, again, this year, on the lines that won such signal favor a year ago, but for double the period, embraced then, and with accentuation of new features.

The headquarters and assembly tent will be on McGregor Heights, the summit of a splendid wooded bluff of some 500 feet elevation, which is rapidly growing as a fine social center. Many summer cottages are there, while the number is constantly increasing. A new road from the city furnishes the autoist with an excellent approach to the community.

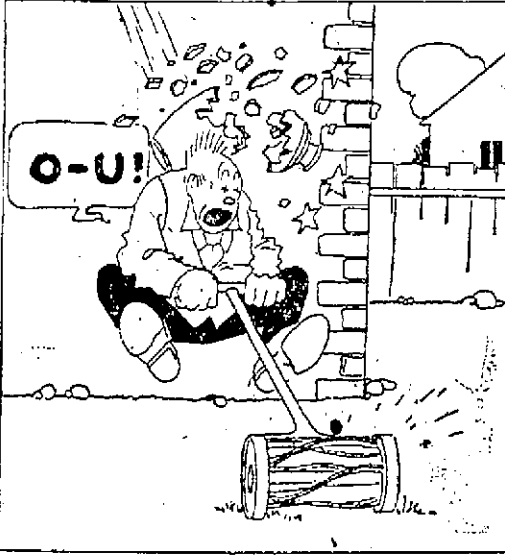

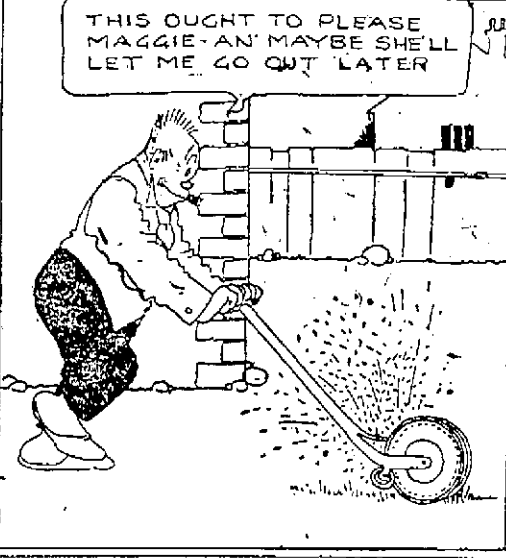

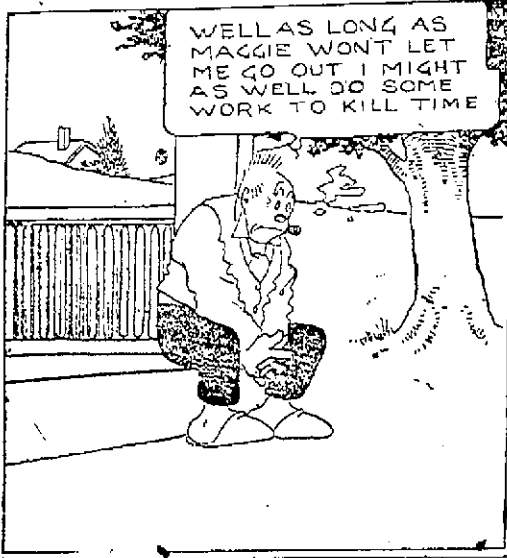

McGregor and its area constitute the prominent scenic and historical centre of the entire Mississippi Valley. Here the geologist, botanist, ornithologist and intervening types of research students find a wealth of opportunity for investigation and study, both abundant and appealing. Here the archaeologist and historian discover a field where tradition and record of the past, as they bear on the red man, with the mounds and tumuli in large and common evidence, invite him to the accumulation of that lore of a race, which for every true American must possess a special and basal interest all its own.

Men who are leaders in the world of science will be present to take charge of the classes.

In the carrying forward of the class work, there will be no undue attempt to burden the minds of students with scientific formulae. Students are expected from every walk of life and of all ages, and the direct aim is to furnish outlines of information bearing on the various nature departments that in addition to giving the knowledge itself will excite and kindle an increasing love for wild life everywhere and under every condition.

America today is in deadly danger of continuing the course which has robbed her of those gems of the Creator's handiwork, so necessary to her peace and welfare, and The American School seeks to imbue her students with what shall antagonize this to the death, and send these students

Broker Arrested Tells of Operations
Relating to Bank Wrecking
Says U. S. Chief

CHICAGO, Ill.—Joseph Stout, a Chicago broker, arrested in connection with the indictments returned against John W. Worthington and twenty-seven other individuals Wednesday made statements which, according to John V. Clinlin, assistant United States district attorney, will transfer him from the defendant to the witness class.

"Stout's statement went back as far as 1902 and included operations which wrecked a Chicago and several out of town banks and a large insurance company," said Col. Clinlin. "It is not a confession, merely a statement."

"Stout informed us he was swindled out of $30,000 in a bank crash and was just working with Worthington to get his money back."

Several of Worthington's alleged accomplices have fled for the far west, Mr. Clinlin said.

MINNESOTA AND WISCONSIN CHEESE COMBINE TALKED

State Market Directors Will Meet on Monday at Madison

MADISON, Wis.—Conference will be held here next Monday between Hugh L. Hughes, director of markets for Minnesota and Edward Nordmark, commissioner of markets in Wisconsin, to discuss the legal aspects of the consolidation of Wisconsin and Minnesota cheese producers' associations. The co-operative laws of the two states are said to differ in important respects, making it imperative that details of the consolidation be considered to make sure that they are in conformity with the statutes. The joining of the two federations will result in the marketing of $20,000,000 pounds of cheese through co-operative organization of the producers. It is expected that the contract calling for consolidation will be entered into Monday.

TRADES AND LABOR COUNCIL TO HAVE EXCURSION SUNDAY

La Crosse excursion enthusiasts will have at least one more opportunity of making the popular river trip to Lansing on Sunday before the 1921 excursion season ends. The steamer Washington of the Streckfus line, which appeared here last Sunday, will again be in the city on August 7 for a day trip to Lansing, followed by a moonlight dancing trip. The steamer, which has completed its northern Mississippi program, is now returning to the south. It is all probable the steamer will make but one more northern cruise.

Under auspices of the La Crosse Trades and Labor council, the Washington will leave the local levee Sunday morning at 8.30 for Lansing. The steamer will return here, after a short visit in the Iowa village, at 7 p. m. The Lansing voyage will be followed by a moonlight dancing trip at 8.15 and ending at 11.30. The trip will all be made according to city time.

THE "NIPPY" FALL TROTTEUR

BY MARIAN HALE

NEW YORK.—It's nippy but it's nice. That is, of course, if you have a figure adapted to alpinism. Just glimpse the new silhouette of the approaching fall trotteur. Of course, it's from Paris and this particular model was made by a man's tailor. For is it not—as we say in France—that the American woman likes masculine tailored effects in her clothes? And does not that gay Paris just adore pleasing the American woman? Well—be that as it may—here's the new fall model for a smart walking suit. It is of gray worsted with black binding on collar, pockets and cuffs. The skirt is nine inches from the ground and the coat, nipped in at the waist, so as to shame the very sassiest beau brummel, flares out with no compromise over the hips. Of course, it's no costume for a fat lady nor yet the lank futuristic dandiel.

But—oh my—it is good to look at, upon a perfect thirty-six.

KIWANIS CLUB IS COMMUNITY AID, SECRETARIES TOLD

CHICAGO, Ill.—Nothing finer can happen to any community than the establishment of a Kiwanis club in it. Harry E. Kuntz of Baltimore, president of International Kiwanis, told a convention of Kiwanis field secretaries, assembled here Wednesday. Statistical reports show that Kiwanians are spending time in and out of business hours, thousands of dollars in cash and hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of energy for the betterment of their respective communities. President Kuntz said in referring to the present membership of 52,000 in 554 American and Canadian cities. "Kiwanis exists not to substitute but to substantiate, not to supplant but to assist any organization working for the city, town, state or country," he asserted in urging the necessity of making non-members enthusiastic over the work of the clubs.

FLOOD WATERS IN ARKANSAS RIVER DESTROY HOMES

CANON CITY, Colo.—Flood waters of the Arkansas river which swept down upon South Canon, a suburb, and the lower part of this city Tuesday, had disappeared Wednesday, leaving nearly a score of families homeless and causing damage unofficially estimated at more than $200,000.

Trampt action of rescue parties in boats prevented loss of life here Tuesday night when a 14-foot wall of water swept down the Arkansas river out of the Royal Gorge. Several residences were destroyed, manufacturing plants were damaged and the city water system put out of commission.

The flood was caused by a cloudburst above here in the Royal Gorge. Considerable damage also was done at Florence.

WILTON CREAMERY SETS JUNE RECORD

Colony of Beavers Begin Operations in Jackson County; Pest of Marshland

TOMAH, Wis.—The top creamery of Monroe county, located at Wilton, did the biggest business during the month of June of any on record. One hundred thousand six hundred and nineteen pounds of butter was the total output for the 30 days. No creamery in this "neck of the woods" can beat that.

A colony of beavers has commenced operations on the Gebhardt marsh in Jackson county. The beavers multiply so rapidly that they are a distinct nuisance to marsh owners. The problem of getting rid of the beavers is now confronting Jackson, Monroe, Wood and Juneau counties, the same.

WISCONSIN SKIRTS CLEAN IN USE OF U. S. ROAD TRUCKS

Charges Before Congress of Big National Steal Mean Nothing in this State

PARTICULAR CARE TAKEN IN USE OF WAR SURPLUS

Charged that Some States Have Misused Federal Gift

MADISON, Wis.—Charges made before Congress of a great national steal discovered by federal investigators in connection with the millions of dollars worth of surplus war materials turned over gratis to states for highway purposes leave Wisconsin untouched.

State Highway Engineer A. B. Hirst declared Wednesday that of the $2,500,000 worth of motor construction equipment Wisconsin received from the federal government every item has been used strictly in accordance with regulations.

Anticipating that just such charges as were made by Senator Wadsworth of New York and Representative MacGregor of the same state, in Congress last week might eventually develop, the Wisconsin highway commission stressed in the most exacting manner the use of this equipment as required by the regulations.

U. S. Agents on Trail

Federal investigators were put on the trail of the alleged misappropriation of the surplus materials given the states by large demands of some of the states for more equipment. Inquiry developed the fact that in some instances the equipment instead of being used for road building was being sold at ridiculously low prices and even given away.

Senator Wadsworth and Representative MacGregor have undertaken collection of the evidence in the matter for presentation to Congress with a request for a congressional inquiry. Meanwhile, War Department and Department of Justice agents are making a survey, checking up each piece of machinery in an attempt to single out guilty state officials.

At the conclusion of the war, the government found itself with great quantities of surplus motor and highway building material on its hands. It consisted of trucks, autos, concrete mixers, miscellaneous construction tools and tractors. Congress, realizing the desirability of road improvement throughout the nation, authorized the distribution of the machinery to states for that purpose.

The materials were distributed on the same basis as the federal aid. Wisconsin's share was two and one-half percent. This gave the state about $2,500,000 worth of construction equipment, consisting of the following items:

300 trucks,
40 automobiles, mostly Fords,
40 large tractors,
10 concrete mixers.

Miscellaneous materials, such as steel rails, steel posts, shovels, picks, automobile and tractor parts.

The large part of this machinery has been distributed to the counties, which, Mr. Hirst explained, was required by federal regulations relating to the use of the materials.

None of the equipment has been sold, excepting that which was received partly damaged and unusable and that which has since become worn out. Funds obtained from machinery sold have been used only for the purchase of new equipment.

State Expects More
"Wisconsin welcomes any congressional investigation," Mr. Hirst said. "We have been especially careful about the use of this equipment, realizing that there might develop criticism over the use of some of this many millions of dollars of machinery that the government so generously gave the states."

"We have used and disposed of it strictly in accordance to account for it all."

Wisconsin expects to receive about $500,000 more of this equipment making a total of $3,000,000 worth, according to Mr. Hirst.

RAID OUTSIDE OF THREE MILE LIMIT IS UNDER INQUIRY

District Attorney Who Ordered Seizure of Rum Ship May be Called to Washington

WASHINGTON.—United States District Attorney Hayward of New York probably will be summoned to Washington to discuss the seizure of a liquor smuggler on the schooner Henry L. Marshall outside the three-mile limit off Atlantic City. Assistant General Goff said Thursday that the department of justice had the matter of calling Mr. Hayward here under consideration.

Efforts to seize foreign ships at sea, Colonel Goff indicated might lead to international difficulties and the department would give very serious consideration to the law before attempting such a step.

Warrants for Crew

JERSEY CITY, N. J.—Warrants for the arrest of the officers and crew of the schooner Henry L. Marshall, seized as a liquor runner last Monday night and for three others said to have been interested in the cargo were issued Thursday by Federal Commissioner Queen. The warrant charged violation of the Volstead act, and attempt to defraud the government of customs.

The three accused men besides the crew included John G. Crossland, described as "an Atlantic City millionaire."

The attorney said the crew, detained at Brooklyn by customs men, declared Mr. Crossland had gone to the Bahamas to supervise loading a whiskey cargo and awaited the boat's arrival off the United States coast.

U. S. PRISONERS ARE GIVEN FREEDOM SAYS RELIEF BODY

Announced that all Americans Held in Russia are Released

LONDON.—By The Associated Press.—The London headquarters of the American relief administration Thursday announced receipt of administration reports that all American prisoners in Russia have been released and are now leaving that country.

Ex-Prisoners Jubilant

BERLIN.—Captain M. C. Cooper of Jacksonville, Fla., who escaped from a prison in Moscow after having been shot down during fighting between the bolsheviks and the Poles, arrived here from Warsaw Wednesday to see Mrs. Margarita E. Harrison, the American newspaper correspondent who was recently liberated by the soviet authorities. Captain Cooper declared Mrs. Harrison had saved his life by supplying him with food and clothes at the Moscow prison before she was herself incarcerated.

When the two Americans met in the lobby of a Berlin hotel there was an affecting greeting.

"I would have gone around the world to see you," exclaimed Captain Cooper, "and tell you I should never have lived to escape if it had not been for the supplies you sent me. The news of your release gave me the greatest thrill of my life."

Mrs. Harrison, Captain Cooper and Alfred Reed, of New York city, all of whom were prisoners in soviet Russia, had dinner last night with United States Senator France, who is returning to the United States after a visit to Moscow.

HEAD OF FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM BEGINS DEFENSE

Declares that District Banks are Not Under Control of the Reserve Board

SAYS WEST WAS DENIED CREDIT ON POOR PAPER

Question of Individual Credit Not up to the Board

WASHINGTON.—Governor Harding of the federal reserve board, began Thursday a defense of his administration before the congressional commission which has heard a series of criticisms against the board, including those of John Skelton Williams, former comptroller of currency. Workings of the national credit system, Governor Harding said, are in the hands of the reserve banks and over these the board has general supervision, adding that this did not mean "control."

District Banks Independent

"In law, the reserve banks are private corporations," he continued, "controlled by their directors. Congress did not attempt to establish a central bank, but did furnish a means of mobilizing credits."

Representative Frank Hamilton, said that reserves were not being made available for their banks.

"Their feeling was not warranted," Governor Harding said, "and I want to discuss it later. The difficulty was in the unsuitability of some of the available paper."

"The question of credit extension, clearly is up to the reserve banks," Governor Harding said. "Now, if through prejudice or other cause the district bank refused to re-discount the member bank might appeal to the reserve board, but up to that point we could not interfere."

"It is true that the reserve board has power to change an interest rate on re-discounts after it has been put into effect by a district bank. But that has never been exercised."

QUIET ORE-TRADE CAUSES DECREASE IN SOO TRAFFIC

SALT STE MARIE, Mich.—Freight passing through the American and Canadian canals here during July totaled approximately 4,000,000 tons less than for the same month last year, according to the monthly tonnage report. The traffic east and west bound approximated $128,583 tons.

Passenger traffic showed little change from a year ago, 10,600 persons being carried east and 11,740 west.

The greatest decrease in freight tonnage was in ore shipments, less than half the amount carried eastward in July, 1920, being hauled last month. The total was 4,356,760 tons. This however, was an increase of one million tons over June of this year.

Coal, grain and lumber shipments were heavier than a year ago.

England Denies Offer to Ulster

LONDON.—Reports published here that the government of Northern Ireland had definitely and finally refused to have anything to do with the government proposals relative to peace in Ireland were Thursday officially declared to be absolutely unfounded.

It was asserted that no proposals had been submitted to the Ulster cabinet by the government.

While government circles here profess confidence that Irish affairs are progressing toward a settlement, there has been a tone of uneasiness and even anxiety in many reports from Dublin during the last few days.

These have been accompanied by exhortations for patience, being based on the ground that the negotiations cannot be hurried and may not be concluded for a long time.

Reports Confused

Contradictory reports come from Dublin and Belfast relative to steps being taken to settle the relations of Ulster and Southern Ireland. It has been stated on one hand that direct negotiations have been opened by Sir James Craig, premier of Ulster, and Eamon De Valera, Irish republican leader. It has been declared with equal certainty in other quarters that no negotiations are in progress.

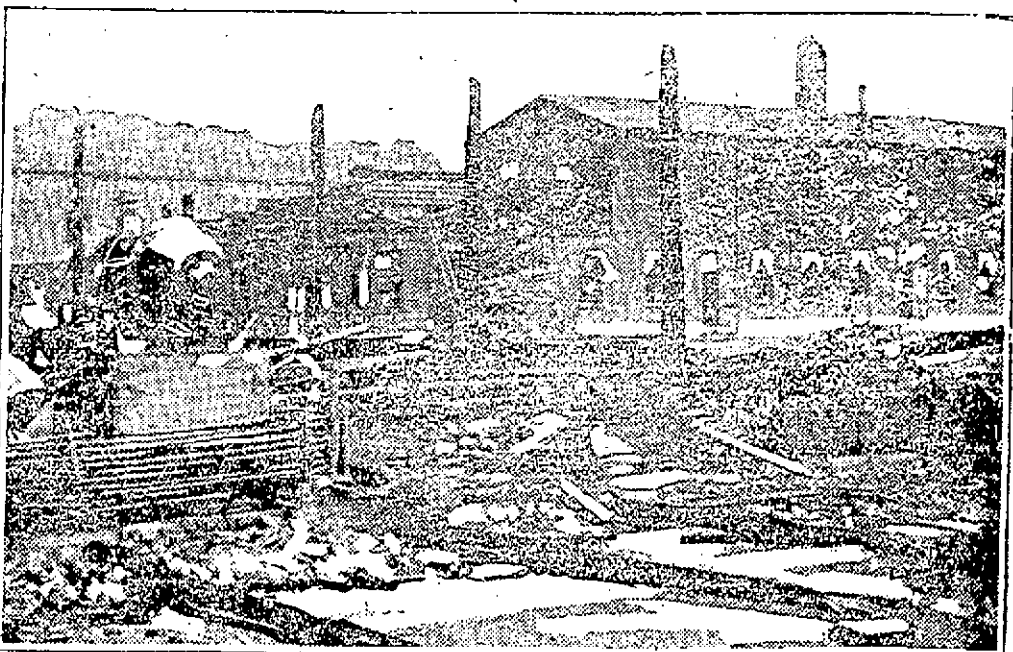

Sir James Craig left London for Belfast last night after receiving a memorial from a large number of members of the house of lords and of parliament to accept the premiership of Ulster. In thanking the donors of the memorial Sir James said nothing to enlighten them regarding Ulster's attitude.

"Whatever side the people of England or of Ireland take," he said during his address, "I absolutely refuse to take any side except that of Great Britain and the empire. We who must take leading parts in these difficult times would be foolish to say a single word that might interfere with the realization of peace throughout Ireland. We are all asking for peace in our own ways but I believe it to be wise for everybody to say nothing in the meantime, because a slip, even a guess sometimes creates much mischief."

CASHTON FALLS BEFORE LA CROSSE CLUB HERE WEDNESDAY

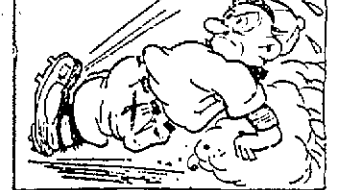

SHOULTERS HURLS LOCALS TO WIN OVER CASHTON, 5-4

Allows Visitors But Two Hits and Shows Effectiveness in Tight Places

ONE BIG INNING DOES TRICK FOR LOCAL CLUB

Visitors Rally in Eighth But are Checked in Time

The baseball club representing the Western Wisconsin League fell before the attack of Shoulter's hurling arm at Copeland park in one big inning Wednesday evening, 5 to 4. Shoulter, making his first appearance for the local club, was given a warm hand and established himself with the fans in allowing the visitors but two safe hits in the game. Billy Wais, former catcher for the La Crosse club in the Minny league, collected both hits credited the visitors, a double and single.

Despite the fact that errors were direct cause of a number of scores, the exhibition was pepped up with good plays and kept the stands in the air the majority of the time. With the exception of the eighth inning, the Shoulter-Davey combination was invincible. An error in right field, one in left and a wild pitch were responsible for the visitors three scores piled up in the eighth frame.

Shoulter, big time hurler for the Western Wisconsin league, was effective during the first and final innings of the game. Local batsmen apparently solved his delivery in the fifth when three hits and an error went for a run of 4 runs. The locals succeeded in piling up a comfortable lead which stood them in good at the end when the visitors threatened to even up the score sheet. The inning marked the final scoring by the local club.

The visiting hurler was touched up for a total of nine safeties and was credited with 10 strikeouts. He allowed two men past first base, Shoulter, who had seven strikeouts, two passes and held the Cashton slingers to two hits. Shoulter continued on his hitting stride, connecting for two safeties off Shoulter.

Shoulter's error was responsible for the visitor's first tally made in the third inning when, with two men away, he failed to take Hansen's fair-pick, allowing Wais who had connected for a double, to score from second base.

In their rap in the fourth inning, the locals succeeded in balancing the score. Krause led off with a single and advanced to second on a pass ball through the catcher. Safford singled and went second on an error of the center fielder. Krause at the same time crossing the plate. Weiss struck out and Shoulter sacrificed. Fuchs crashed one out to the keeper of the left garden, retiring the side.

Shoulter started things off in the fifth when Hanly muffed his fly to right field, the big pitcher going to second when he saw that the coast was clear of anyone covering second.

Bromley brought in the score on a single and advanced to second as the play for Shoulter was made at home. Davey reached first on an error of the first baseman. Bromley going third. Davey offered exciting moments for players at short and first and first when he was caught between the two sacks. While they were setting at faults there, Bromley calmly walked in from third. Davey outdid them and was safe at second. Weigert singled for another score by Davey. Weigert was brought in by Safford's second hit of the game. Krause was out. Shoulter to lead, and Weiss and Shoulter struck out.

Cashton's spirited rally in the eighth frame netted them three runs. Curtis, first man up received a walk. Wais connected for a hit through second and Curtis was safe. Barnes fied out. Hansen fied to left who errored, Curtis scoring. Wais scored on a pass ball. Shoulter fied out to center and Hansen beat the throw in from the field, adding the third score. Williams grounded out. In the ninth inning, with one down, the game was quickly brought to an end with a double play. Bell, who had received a walk, was doubled at second with Hanly on a grounder to second. La Crosse.....000 140 000-5

Cashton.....001 000 020-1

SWEEPS OVER ALL NET STARS ALIKE

By DEAN SNYDER

Will the impetuous Vincent Richards rank ahead of the wonder-man of tennis—William T. Tilden—before the tennis year ends?

Like a comet, this youth has shot through the list of stars this summer who rated above him a year ago.

Richards was given the rank of No. 12 by the United States Lawn Tennis Association in 1920.

He has beaten in turn Ichiji Kumagae, third in the national rank; R. Norris Williams II, fourth and Tilden, first.

The one set he dropped to Tilden is the first he has lost this year.

Never before has a youth accomplished as much in a single season.

And Richards has come through five important tournaments practically unextended.

Climax

His victory over Tilden, the world's champion, came as an astounding climax. He played the more masterly tennis.

While Tilden offers no alibis, he was tired and not at his best.

"I did not play any better when I defended my world title against Norton, the English champion, a few weeks ago at Wimbledon," says Tilden.

The youthful star used much strategy in all of his victories.

Against Kumagae he picked out his soft spots and played them.

When he faced Williams, he sensed the former champion's weakness at the start. Williams prefers to have the ball away from his body. Richards shot it straight at him with the result that Williams was forced to make his shots from the cramped position.

Richards vanquished the Boston star by his tactical judgment and brilliant stroke execution.

When he stepped out on the courts at Providence, R. I., to face Tilden, the master, he had the poise of a champion.

He showed a well-rounded game coupled with a variety of strokes and magnificent service which threw Tilden off his usual stride.

Invariably he advanced to the net at the psychological moment in pass Tilden with a clever cross-fire.

He recovered apparently untroubled in his leap high in the air in mid-court for volley kills.

Richards has been a tennis sensation since he was 16. At that time he won five national titles within six months.

This year he seems to have dropped some of his boyishness.

He may not be able to beat Tilden, when the champion is at his best, but he will rank one-two-three this fall.

SCHMIDT OF PITTSBURGH IS CATCHING STAR OF SEASON SAYS ROBINSON

NEW YORK—Prominent in the dash of the Pittsburgh Pirates is the catching sensation of the year, Walter Schmidt.

No less an authority than Wilbert Robinson, manager of the Brooklyn Robins, hands the bulk of credit for the class of the Pirates to their star receiver.

"Schmidt developed the young pitching stars of the Pirates staff," Robby says. "He works with them off the field and he keeps them close to the ground on the field. His work in general studies the whole club. He is a star of the first magnitude."

In a season of long drawn out games that start the fans toward the gates in the seventh inning, among a bunch of ball players who seem to be playing for the pay envelope alone, the Pirates are a very pleasant relief. After seeing all the major league clubs in action, there is little doubt that the Pirates are the classiest club in the two big leagues. Maybe they don't win the pennant, but it's hard to see what can keep them out of the series.

They play ball with all the spirit and enthusiasm of a college team.

WILE BROTHERS CHAMPIONS TASTE FIRST DEFEAT IN GAME WITH HAMMES SHOES

ANOTHER TONIGHT

The second and last twilight attraction of the week will be offered by the Nelson and Blair aggregations at Copeland park tonight.

Crawford, ex-league hurler, will be on the mound for the visiting club against Schultz and that he is a moundsman of the first degree goes without saying. Crawford offers rare entertainment with men on bases, having gained for himself a reputation of making them sick, when once they get on. The entire club is composed of hall players of the first rate, having picked the cream of a wide section in forming the personnel of the team.

Schultz, who reviewed the game Wednesday evening from the press box, anticipates one of the hardest games of the year in the fracas with the Blair aggregation tonight and added that real baseball will be required to land a victory. Satek will catch.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

BOSTON—Boston defeated Chicago 3 to 2 in the opening game of the series on Wednesday by hitting Faber hard in the early innings. Not a single put out was made by a Chicago outfielder. A sensational catch by Menosky, bank and reached his glove. Band up along the fence for Schep's drive prevented a tie score: Chicago.....001 100 000-2
Boston.....102 000 000-3
Batteries: Faber and Schalk; Myers and Ruel.

NEWPORT, R. I.—The defeat of Vincent Richards and S. H. Voshell by Robert and Howard Kinsey, California brothers, marked the first day's play in doubles in the lawn tennis journey being played here.

The Wile Brothers baseball team, winners of the Junior league pennant and possessors of a perfect record for the entire season in the games won, was stopped for the first time this season by the Hammes Shoes at the West avenue playgrounds Wednesday evening by a score of 9 to 5. The victory is a distinction for the Hammes team, being the first aggregation capable of emerging with a victory over the strong band of ball at all times, the Hammes Shoes were out to put one over. Rogers, first sacker for the winners, was responsible for three scores of the game, connecting for a triple and two doubles with men on bases. Wensch, next in line on the list, did creditable work with the stick.

Schmidt, star hurler for the Hammes Shoes, worked in excellent shape and in combination with Wensch, held the champs within check. Wittinger and Temp made sensational stops in the field. The contest was called at the end of the sixth on account of darkness. Batteries: Wile Brothers, Anderson and Skuff; Hammes Shoes, Schmidt and Wensch.

Rivoli—"The Passionate Pilgrim," a Paramount special with all star cast; Siren Snapshots and the Beyerstedts orchestra.

Rivoli—Jubilee Girls in "Cohen's Twine"; Tex in "The Wall Street Mystery"; comedy, "Torchy's Double Triumph"; Riviera Orchestra.

Casino—Wesley Barry, David Butler and Helen Jerome Eddy in Maurice Tourneur's "The County Fair"; Fox News.

Strand—Franklyn Farnum in "The Raiders"; comedy, "The Country Fair."

"THE PASSIONATE PILGRIM"
Matt Moore and Rubye de Remer, two of the best known players of the screen, have the leading roles in the Cosmopolitan production for Paramount, "The Passionate Pilgrim" which will be shown at the Rivoli theater today, Friday and Saturday. The support generally is one of unusual excellence and their portrayals add much to the enjoyableness of the picture.

The story deals with a novelist whose career is ruined through a murder committed by his mother-in-law and who later finds happiness and love after many thrilling incidents have transpired. Rubye de Remer, an invalid actress, plays an important part in his life's work. The story is based on Samuel Merwin's famous novel and the picture was personally directed by Robert G. Vignola with artistic results.

"COUNTY FAIR"—CASINO

Some poet once observed that a touch of nature makes the whole world kin. Maurice Tourneur in his screen story of "The County Fair," the famous Neil Burgess drama of New England life, now showing at the Casino, set against the background of a typically American county fair surcharges the atmosphere with these nature wedding touches. It is one succession of thrills and insights into a type of life that is all but fading.

out of the perspective. Wesley Barry's squawky jokes, Sally's ples and Aunt Abigail's lost spectacles are a few of the things that will linger in your memory and haunt you for days after the big story has run its local engagement and made way for some other thriller of the silver screen. The fair grounds with the shows, the dancers, the village band tooting away for dear life, the prancing horses on their way to the starting post for the great race, autumbed American youth running wild in a riot of sport and fun and all the paucity and stir of a fair day in any ordinary community are the outstanding things which under this story to the heart of America and make it redolent of the soil from which it springs.

"FOOLING UNCLE" FEATURED

BY JUBILEE GIRLS TODAY

"Fooling Uncle" a musical skill will be presented for the last time today at the Riviera by Max Golden's Jubilee Girls. The feature picture is Tex, elucidator of mysteries, in "The Wall Street Mystery," a thrilling detective story that reveals the methods of a great detective in running down a band of arch criminals. "Torchy's Double Triumph" is the comedy on the program.

FRANKLYN FARNUM — STRAND

Franklyn Farnum in his latest picture, "The Raiders," is at the Strand today. In this production Mr. Farnum casts off his cowboy costume and in the uniform of a private of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police of Canada traces detective and saves an innocent man's life. A timely stroke of lightning saves him from having the blood of the guilty man on his hands, while at the same time the prettiest girl in all the Canadian woods falls in love with him and demands to be led to the altar immediately. Throughout this entire picture Mr. Farnum is a thoroughly "be-man" who can shoot a wart off a potato at a thousand yards, ride any kind of a horse that has four feet and pummel the very life out of any sour dough from the United States line to the Arctic Circle.

MOTHERS' PENSION IS HELPING MORE THAN 2,700 FAMILIES

MADISON, Wis.—A survey of the administration of the mothers' pension law during the seven year period that it has been in operation shows that the number of families aided has risen from 187 in 1913 to 2,769 in 1920, while expenditures have increased from $9,632 to $523,427 during the same period. There has been an increase in the number of children aided from 667 in 1913 to 8,100 in 1920 which shows conclusively the board of control says, that the law has met with popular approval.

Change in the pension law by the past legislature provides that the mother shall receive not more than $15 per month for the first child and $10 a month additional for each additional child without restriction. The previous limit had been $40.

DEMOCRAT DECLARES HARDING "ORDERED" NORRIS BILL DEATH

Political Clash in Senate When Hitchcock Attacks Administration

WASHINGTON. — Assertion by Senator Hitchcock, democrat, Nebraska, that President Harding had "ordered the slaughter" of the Norris agricultural export credit bill started a political clash in the senate Wednesday, republican and democratic senators coming to the defense of the pending committee substitute bill.

Republicans had criticized democrats during the Wilson administration for yielding to the president's "dictation" and now were following the same course, Senator Hitchcock said, he referred to the president's opposition to the Norris bill as well as the Norris bill and said the difference between the "interference" of presidents Wilson and Harding was that Mr. Wilson took affirmative action for legislation carrying out party pledges while Mr. Harding followed the course of "negative dictation" to defeat measures to which his party was pledged.

Senator Kellogg, republican, Minnesota, author of the original administration substitute for the Norris bill said that apparently the democratic senators supporting the committee substitute also were yielding to dictation. He said Senator Hitchcock was making "a political speech."

An agreement limiting speeches to ten minutes was reached in the hope of a final vote today.

Public Debate

LOOK OUT FOR WEEDS
La Crosse, Wis., Aug. 3rd, 1921.
To whom it may concern and a warning to others:

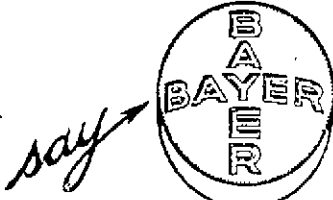

It came to my notice that men, undoubtedly employed by the city are cutting down weeds, harmless and otherwise in the streets and private property, which is very laudable, but why pass up the alleys where this, noxious weeds, some very poisonous and wild plants of all descriptions are allowed to grow and mature? It surely would not be because they cannot charge the work done in the alleys to abutting property owners. I would think, the writer recently found chestnut burrs and burdock in the alley near his home and promptly cut them with a sickle and in so doing came in contact with a very poisonous weed of some kind which burnt and stung and raised pimples worse than mosquito bites on his hands and arms, but with the prompt application of turpentine the pain and pimples disappeared overnight. I would advise parents to warn their children not to root around or pick up anything among weeds of any kind or description. If the publishers of this paper will give this a little publicity considerable pain and worry may be avoided.

Very truly,
FRANK G. ROTH.

HARDING OPPOSES EARLY ACTION ON FREE CANAL TOLLS

WASHINGTON—President Harding has informed senate republican leaders, according to information Wednesday, of his opposition to early action on Senator Borah's bill to restore the free tolls privilege to American coastwise vessels using the Panama canal. Mr. Harding was said to take the position that to avoid a possible dispute with Great Britain and other nations the free tolls question should be deferred altogether until after the approaching disarmament conference as discussion of the question at this time might create obstacles to success of the conference.

The president also was represented as preferring settlement of the toll question by diplomatic negotiation rather by legislation.

Senator Borah was said, however, to be disposed to press his toll bill within the next few weeks.

STATE DRUGGISTS ASK PROTECTION FOR YANKEE DYES

Want Higher Tariff to Enable American Firms to Get Good Start

EAU CLAIRE, Wis.—The resolution calling upon congress to increase the tariff rates on dyes and pharmaceutical chemicals from Germany and other countries to enable the concerns making them in this country to get a start, was unanimously adopted at Wednesday's session of the annual state convention of the Wisconsin Pharmaceutical Association. The resolution was adopted without debate or discussion.

Lectures by Prof. H. A. Langenhorn of the University of Wisconsin on practical pharmacy, and Dr. E. H. Ehler, Minneapolis, on vitamins, featured the morning's session. In the afternoon the visitors were taken to Chippewa Falls and Wisconsin Dells in automobiles. All previous records for attendance were broken with more than 115 registered pharmacists from all over the state registered and more coming. The record before was 88, last year's attendance. Other visitors here were members of the Wisconsin Pharmaceutical Travelers' association and the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Wisconsin Pharmaceutical Association.

The total attendance was well over 250 and indications pointed to an attendance of 400 by night.
